How to Check Exam Scoring Results

The image shows a two-step process for checking exam results. The top screenshot is the 'Exam Schedule' page, which lists two exams: 'Nurse Aide Written Exam' and 'Nurse Aide Skills Exam'. Both exams are marked as 'Exam Completed'. The 'Nurse Aide Skills Exam' entry has a large orange arrow pointing down to the 'Show Result' button. The bottom screenshot is the 'Examination Results' page, which displays the results for the 'Skill Exam-PASS'. The page includes exam details such as Paper Testing ID, Date of Birth, Examination Date, and Answer sheet no. A green button labeled 'Skill Exam-PASS' is prominently displayed. Below the results, there is a 'Next Steps' section with congratulatory text and a 'Download' button.

Skill Exam-PASS

Next Steps:
Congratulations! You have passed the NNAAP® Skill Evaluation in Pennsylvania. To receive an overall passing result on the NNAAP® Examination, you must also pass the Written Examination within the two-year period immediately following your nurse aide training completion date. If you qualify for placement on the Pennsylvania Nurse Aide Registry, you will receive a Nurse Aide Registry Card in the mail within three (3) weeks of your passing examination date. If you do not receive your Nurse Aide Registry Card within thirty (30) days following the date on which you passed the examination, please contact Credentia at (800) 852-0518.
